During 1950, the Rumanian Ministry of National Defense sent about 3,000 officers and noncommissioned officers of the Rumanian Army, Navy and Air Force to Russia for military training. The majority of these students were trained in antiaircraft and antitank artillery schools. The others attended communication, geodetic, railroad, and specialized schools. Air Force officers and noncommissioned officers were trained mainly as bombardiers and Naval officers and noncommissioned officers were trained for submarine duty.
